

UNIVERSITY OF MEDICINE, MAGWAY

Medical year one

MSS module

Exercises (SBA) for SBS module

1. Psychodynamic approach emphasize
 - A. learning
 - B. Genetic
 - C. Internal conflict
 - D. Non of the above
 - E. All of the above

2. Dopamine is a neurotransmitter used in the parts of the brain involved in
 - A. experiencing pleasure
 - B. sleep
 - C. memory
 - D. muscle contraction
 - E. learning

3. Which of the following is not a part of gestalt theory of perception?
 - A. Continuity
 - B. Figure ground
 - C. Proximity
 - D. Shape constancy
 - E. Closure

4. Principles of perceptual organization and constancy include
 - A. Grouping
 - B. Figure ground discrimination
 - C. Perception of location and depth
 - D. Perceptual constancy
 - E. All of the above

5. Which emotion theory states that, emotion and physical arousal occurs simultaneously?
 - A. James-Lang theory of emotion
 - B. Schechter-Singer and Cognitive Arousal Theory
 - C. Cannon-Bard theory of emotion
 - D. All the above
 - E. None of the above

6. Humans communicate emotions mainly through

- A. facial expression
- B. bodily movement
- C. voice tone
- D. All the above
- E. None of the above

7. Micheal is 72 years old. According to Erikson, he is most probably in the stage of

- F. Integrity verses despair
- G. Intimacy verses isolation
- H. Trust verses distrust
- I. Autonomy verses shame and doubt
- E. Industry verses inferiority

8. Cognitive development includes the development of

- A. thinking
- B. knowing
- C. remembering
- D. None of the above
- E. All of the above